Dear Mr. Watts,

On behalf of Mississippi State University, I would like to thank you for your generous contribution. Private gifts such as yours provide a level of support that is essential for advancing higher education in our state. Through the collective efforts of our Infinite Impact campaign, we are able to maximize the effect of your contribution to facilitate greater success.

Attached is your tax-deductible receipt. Again, we are grateful for your investment in the future of education and in Mississippi State University.

Sincerely,

John P. Rush
